Dedication

HHS

Dear Mom and Dad,

We are dedicating our annual to you as a token of appreciation for all you have done for us these past years to make ones happy.

We are thankful for the many sacrifices you have made for us and if sometimes we seemed ungrateful, we hope this will live forever as proof of our gratitude and all our love,

The Seniors

I'M A SENIOR

I am a paragon of virtue,
The pick of the crop,
A model of excellence,
Right at the top.

I'm matchless perfection,
Really the best.
I'm peerless, first-rate.
I can pass any test.

I'm priceless, unequalled
Inimitable, select,
Inestimable, unparalleled
Superfine, elect.

I'm a senior!

Class History

A merry band, a gay young crew
Of number thirty-six and two
Seniors all and on the way
To life, to joy, to work, to play.

Just twelve years hence, we started here
The month September--'43 the year.
With study, struggle, and many a sigh
We proudly entered Junior High.

Even then, we fondly dreamed,
Profusely hoped, and grandly schemed
For that future, "All aboard,
Train leaving for Washington and New York."

As green Freshmen, we were fine and dandy
And started selling taffy candy.
By box, by case, and by the ton
We sold the stuff to everyone.

Important Sophomores we became
And meteor-like we rose to fame
By acting in the one act plays--
Still selling candy by the case.

So busy we as Juniors were
We can't subtract details from blur
Then dizzily every boy and girl
Entered in the Senior whirl.

They save the best til last, you know
The truth in this we proudly show
Despite the lack of peace and rest,
We'll all agree this year was best.

It's May and we must now embark
Small candles burning in the dark.
We cast one longing look behind
And then embark the waiting tide.

We'll miss these friends, these hallowed halls
But we must go--the future calls.
But even though we take our leave
Our hearts remain in memory.

A gay young crew, a merry band
The finest class in all the land
To plot, to plan, conjure, devise
The graduates of '55.

We are the Future Homemakers of America,
We face the future with warm courage and high hope.
We have the clear consciousness of seeking old and precious values.
For we are the builders of homes,
Homes for America's future.
Homes where love, and security and faith will be realities not dreams.
Homes where living will be the expression of everything that is good and fair.
We are the Future Homemakers of America.
We face the future with warm courage and high hope.

ALMA MATER

Sweet High School home, we'll sing
to thee
Though we may roam o'er land and sea
Our fondest thoughts shall turn in memory
Memories ever back to thee.

HOLGATE HIGH'S OLDEST GRADS
LEFT TO RIGHT: Laura Belknap Theobold, Marian Belknap Cuff, Ray Mann, Anna Voight Mann, Clara Farrison Sumner and Muriel Tripp.

Let trails break and round us fall
Let fond hopes quake and vanish all
Yet wilt thy name so dear dwell in our hearts
Our hearts while we are here.

Alumni Banquet

Toastmaster: Dr. Harold Wenzinger
Guests of Honor: The Seniors

Sing Alma Mater Holgate High
Sing 'til the vaulted echoes ring
Sing 'til the gales on swiftest wing
Bear the song away.
Sing 'til returning echoes bring
Back again the lay
Sing 'til the echoes bring back the lay
Sing Holgate High
